SYNOPSIS

APPROPRIATION ORDINANCE 78-12

This appropriation ordinance provides funds for two very different City purposes.

The funds to purchase the Monroe Tobacco Property are provided from Federal Revenue Sharing as determined by the Capital Improvement Budget. This purchase is contingent upon the Council's approval of the accompanying intent to purchase ordinance.

The second matter accomplished by the ordinance is the appropriation for use by the Police Department of money received by that department for the sale of old automobiles. The money has been received by the City and deposited according to law in the General Fund; it must now be appropriated if the Police Department is to use it.
